

Junior Golf Development & Event Manager

- Two Positions
- Peak Sporting Body
- Melbourne based roles

Golf Australia formed in 2006 and is the national sporting organisation for golf in Australia and the governing body for amateur golf. Golf Australia's goal is to raise the level of interest and participation in the game from grassroots golfers through to the elite levels, spectators, volunteers and associated industry bodies. Key responsibilities incorporate managing national tournaments and championships including the Australian Opens as well as rules and handicapping. Golf Australia has two exciting opportunities to join their enthusiastic team:

Junior Golf Development

Ever dreamed of implementing exciting and innovative projects that increase junior participation in the game of golf? Golf Australia, the national sporting organisation for golf in Australia, is seeking an individual to join their Game and Club Development department in the role of Junior Golf Development.

This role encompasses responsibility for the on-going day-to-day management of Golf Australia's junior golf initiatives and the implementation of the Australian Junior Golf Strategic Framework. This framework aims to provide high quality golf experiences for young people which attract and engage juniors and provide an opportunity for development which results in increased participation in all forms of golf

You will be part of a dynamic team reporting to the Director of Game and Club Development. You will ensure that the framework timelines and goals are being met and explore new opportunities to increase junior golf participation and promotion. The successful candidate will also manage partner and State Association relationships and be the secretariat for newly established Australian Junior Golf Advisory Board.

The preferred candidate will be suitably qualified, ideally within a serviced orientated organisation and will have an in depth knowledge of the sport or golfing industry. You will have well developed interpersonal communication and organisational skills as you will interact with a wide variety of stakeholders on a daily basis. Above all an ability to communicate at every level will be critical to this individual's success.

Appropriate tertiary qualifications will be highly regarded. Salary is negotiable around $44k package. Contact Susie Rogers on 03 9682 7044 or email Susie@rusherrogers.com.au quote reference no: 2000554. Applications close on Friday 17th August 2007, 5.00pm.

Event Manager

Reporting to the Director of Championships, as a key member of this dynamic team you'll develop and implement pre-event planning processes to ensure the successful coordination and management of all scheduled national events, including the Women's Australian Open and event functions outside of championships.

You'll coordinate and liaise with internal and external parties, manage event sponsorship, budgets and attend to all day-to-day administrative details vital in the coordination of a relentless programme of scheduled events. Ability to manage deadlines, eye for detail, exceptional communication and coordination skills are critical as well as previous experience in a similar role.

Golf or sporting industry exposure is preferred as well as the flexibility to travel and work beyond Monday to Friday. Appropriate tertiary qualifications will be highly regarded. Salary package is negotiable around $55k.
