

Australian Government
Australian Sports Commission

Senior Sports Consultant Integrity of Sport

Job No 917 $71 158 - $77 345 per annum plus superannuation

You will strategically build upon all facets of, and provide leadership to support national sporting organisations and other system partners to strengthen sports integrity and athlete wellbeing.

You will require Extensive experience working in government and/or the private sector in strategic policy, program or project management and tertiary qualifications or industry experience in areas such as social policy, cultural change, human rights or law are essential.

Employment benefits include use of on-site gymnasium, childcare and free parking facilities.

Position is based in Canberra and will be available until 30 June 2010.

For selection documentation visit www.ausport.gov.au/jobs
If you are unable to access the internet, please contact our recruitment officer on (02) 6214 1328.

For enquiries after reading the job description contact Nadine Cohen on (02) 6214 1453.

Applications close Monday, 30 November 2009

Applicants must be Australian citizens or permanent residents of Australia