Sports Consultant Integrity of Sport

Job No 987 $62 151 - $67 121 per annum plus superannuation

You will provide specialist information and advice to support and assist the sport industry, particularly national sporting organisations, to proactively address fair play, harassment, child protection and other ethical issues in sport.

You will require tertiary qualifications or industry experience in areas such as social policy, cultural change, human rights, law or sport management. A demonstrated understanding of common legal principles and legislation relating to harassment, discrimination, child protection and complaint handling would be desirable.

Employment benefits include use of on-site gymnasium, childcare and free parking facilities.

Position is based in Canberra and will be available until 30 June 2010.
