

2010 SRIXON AUSTRALIAN AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP

ROSS HERBERT TEAMS TROPHIES

Ross Herbert was the inaugural head coach of the Australian Institute of Sport Golf program. A PGA member for 20 years, Ross pursued the highest ideals of personal integrity as a tour player, coach, friend, colleague, father and husband. Ross had a great passion and enthusiasm for the game of golf and for life. Ross passed away in January 2001 at the age of 42.

The winners of the Team Trophies are determined by the aggregate of the four scores over the first two stroke play rounds.
