English duo snare 2011 Men's NSW Medal and Amateur Championship

All the way from the UK, Andy Sullivan (Nuneaton Golf Club) secured a convincing victory in the 2011 NSW Medal held at Cumberland and Liverpool Golf Clubs on 25, 27 & 28 January 2011. Andy finished at 17-under par after the four rounds of play, winning the event by four shots. Fellow countryman Jack Senior (Haysham Golf Club) then defeated Sullivan in the 36-hole final of the Amateur Championship at New South Wales Golf Club which was played from Monday 31 January – Wednesday 2 February 2011. Full reports, results, images and prize winners can be found online at www.golfnsw.org.

Volunteers at both NSW Opens deserve special praise

The number of events staged each year by Golf NSW is an opener at the best of times and the one factor that underpins the success or otherwise of all these events is the magnificent contribution made by the hundreds of volunteers. This is particularly relevant when it comes to both NSW Opens.

The Men's NSW Open held at The Vintage for the fourth time last November and more recently the Bing Lee- Samsung Women's NSW Open staged at Oatlands were both outstanding tournaments. However, unless you were at either or both of these flagship tournaments to see the volunteers in action or to hear the accolades they received at the presentation, then you have missed something special. The valuable work each and every volunteer does literally guarantees the event can happen.

No matter whether they act as official members of the Rules team, or are part of the brigade of scorers or leader-board attendants, spectator marshals, hospitality helpers, car park and or driving range support staff, each person plays an important role in presenting the event. It is often said, that without sponsors, a tournament wouldn't happen. Let it also be said, that without volunteers – one would have to make the same statement.

To all those volunteers at both Opens who gave up their time to assist – THANK YOU on behalf of Golf NSW.
