

RULES OF GOLF ACCREDITATION

2012 Club Level Accreditation Courses conducted by Golf Tasmania

The Golf Tasmania Rules of Golf Accreditation Course is designed for those men and women who wish to improve their knowledge of the Rules of Golf and perhaps sit for Club Level Accreditation. Details of the course follow:-

- Seminars and examinations are for the duration of approximately three hours each.
- Club Level Examination is 50 multiple choice questions on the Rules of Golf (three hours allowed).
- To pass the exam a minimum of 40 correct answers must be achieved with the assistance of a Rules Book.
- To be invited to sit State level Accreditation, currently a pass of 46 or better must be achieved at Club Level.
- Successful Club Level candidates will receive a Certificate of Achievement, Golf Australia Rules Accredited Cap and periodical Rules Accreditation Newsletters.
- Club Level Accreditation will allow your services to be utilised at club and district golf association level events.
- The fee for the course, including examination and course study guide, is $16.50 per person (including GST), payable by cash, cheque or money order at the time of application. For those that pass, this fee includes approximately 18 months inclusion as an accredited rules official.
- Applications should be submitted at least two weeks before the scheduled seminar.

NOTE: Although the seminars are an important learning forum for people interested in understanding and applying the Rules of Golf, it is virtually impossible to cover all aspects of the Rules in such a short time. Therefore, all participants are requested to familiarize themselves with the format of the current Rules Booklet prior to attendance.
