Golf SA Talent ID Program Application Form

Golf SA has refined its Elite Athlete Pathway in line with the National High Performance Program & Pathway. The Elite Athlete Pathway consists of a number of inter-related parts including:

- Talent ID Program
- State Development Program
- State Teams
- Representative Players

The Talent ID Program is the first formal step in Golf SA's Elite Athlete Pathway. The aims of the Talent ID Program are to:

- Introduction to the concepts of sports medicine and sports science as applied to golf
- Provide a level of advanced coaching
- Provide education in the Rules & Etiquette of Golf

The Talent ID Program will be coordinated by the Golf SA Development Coach.

Talent ID Squads will be selected from junior players who are currently participating in various championships and events such as SAPSASA, Year 8-9 Championships and Club & District events and activities.

The Talent ID Program will be based at the North Adelaide Golf Club. Golf SA will also provide some elements of the Program through Country regions using suitably qualified PGA coaches. The proposed Program for Jul 12-Jun 13 is attached.

A cost of $100 is attached to the Talent ID Program. There are only a limited number of positions (40) available.

A cost of $150 is attached to the 4 Day Program held at the North Adelaide Golf Club in October.

A cost of $40 is attached to the Aaron Baddeley Junior International Qualifying State Event. (Entry Form available in 2013).

See further details on next page.
