

MEMORANDUM

Subject: Virgin Australia Offer to ALPG Members
(Fly with Virgin Australia ... and take your clubs for free)

Dear Member

I am pleased to announce that Virgin Australia has extended its support of travelling Professional Golfers to include ALPG members by offering free carriage of one golf bag on all domestic and Trans Tasman flights.

In summary, benefits afforded to ALPG members are as follows:

- Free golf bag carriage. All quoted airfares will include one set of golf clubs (up to a maximum 23 kgs); additional charges will apply to check-in luggage (as is normal practice if you were to book online)
- 5% discount of most domestic airfares (excludes sale fares and base fares)
- Discounted Lounge memberships (contact Corporate Traveller for details)

ALPG members must:

- Book via Corporate Traveller ONLY. See contact details below.
- Show their ALPG Membership card at the check in counter

In detail, please understand the following terms and conditions:

- Please do not arrive at the check in counter and expect to receive the offer unless you have followed the booking procedure (through Corporate Traveller) outlined below.
- Once booked via Corporate Traveller, you MUST show a valid ALPG Member card at check in, along with your usual photo ID. If you don't have your ALPG Membership card, charges will be applied.
- Bookings must be paid via credit card at the time of confirmation. Virgin Australia charge a $4.50 fee per flight.
- Golf bags MUST meet usual baggage terms and conditions. Don't abuse the offer by including other unreasonable items in your golf travel bag

Book now and start saving...

To redeem this offer, Virgin Australia flights must be booked through Corporate Traveller (ONLY)

Corporate Traveller will save you considerable time booking and changing travel arrangements, and they also offer to "guarantee you the best prices on airfares and hotels".
