DRESS CODE - as of November 2012

Each Member owes a duty to his/her fellow Members to maintain standards befitting Royal Hobart Golf Club. It is the responsibility of all Members to ensure that their guests conform to the regulations of the Club.

CLUBHOUSE

The Dress Code in all areas of the Clubhouse is smart casual attire. Men are not permitted to wear tee shirts, sandals or scuffs and must wear socks with shoes. Lady members and visitors are requested to use fashion discretion in the Clubhouse at all times.

Clean soft spike golf shoes may be worn in the Clubhouse except in the Royal Dining Room.

ON-COURSE

Club Policy requires all players to be neatly dressed. Golf shoes are to be worn on the golf course, metal spikes are strictly prohibited.

MEN

Tailored slacks or shorts are acceptable.

Shirts with a collar or turtle neck are acceptable, shirts must be tucked in.

Blue Jeans, cargo shorts and track suits are not accepted.

The wearing of dark/coloured socks is not permitted with shorts.

WOMEN

Modern, comfortable and functional apparel, with modesty and suitability and at the same time displaying style and modern flair suitable for the game of golf is accepted.

Blue jeans, singlets and sun tops are not accepted.

NOTE:

Garments with any advertising slogans (except for discreet brand name and Club logos) are not permitted.

The General Manager, Starter or Bar Stewards are the sole arbiters, and their decision is to be adhered to. Any variance to these regulations is at the discretion of the General Manager or his delegate.

Failure to meet our dress regulations may result in members/visitors not being permitted to play on the course or utilise the Clubhouse.
