

SAGOLF Annual Awards Evening

Glenelg Membership, after 4 years at Glenelg, Pauline was approached by Kooyonga Golf Club and asked to play Pennant Golf.

In 1951 she joined the Kooyonga Golf Club and that was the start of a stellar playing and administrative career. Pauline was a fine player with her short game being her forté.

In 1959 Pauline claimed the Kooyonga Club Championship and was runner up on numerous occasions over the years.

Pauline's career highlight include:

A-Grade Pennant player for many years

Runner Up in the State Amateur Championship on 2 occasions

4 time State Foursomes Champion

4 time State (Mixed) Foursomes Champion

Pauline's own playing highlight, was her selection for the first time in the Women's State Team and then remaining a State Team Member for 17 years, her final two years as Playing Captain.

Pauline was combining golf with work, initially running a Motel, then with Amusements at Glenelg and the Royal Show. With her increasing commitments Pauline took on the role of State Non Playing Captain, a title she then held for 12 years. All in all, Pauline committed 29 years to the Women's State Team.

At Kooyonga, Pauline was a Women's Committee Member from 1975-79 and Women's Captain in 1978 & 79.

At State Level - at Women's Golf SA, Pauline was a State Selector for an amazing 36 years, Chair of Selectors for 10 years, a Council Representative for 16 years, Junior and Senior Vice President and President of Women's Golf SA for 2 years from 1990 - 1992

At an Australian level, Pauline's leadership qualities were recognized with her appointed as Australian Team Captain for The Tasman Cup - Junior and Senior Teams from 1985-89, Commonwealth Tournaments in Canada, New Zealand and Great Britain, World Cups (Espirito Santo) in Hong Kong (1984), Venezuela (1986) and in New Zealand (1990), and for the Australian Touring Team to South Africa in 1996.

At the highest level at the Ladies Golf Union / Women's Golf Australia Pauline was a Council Rep for 6 years from 1987-1992, Vice President for 4 years, on the Finance Committee for 6 years, Australian Selector for 11 years from 1984-94, including 5 years as Chair and National President for 4 years from 1994-98.

Pauline has been awarded:

An Australian Sports Award - for outstanding performance in 1983 - as Captain of the winning Australian Team in Canada, Life Membership at Kooyonga in 1992, Life Membership of Women's Golf SA in 1995, and an Australian Sport Medal in the year 2000.

With such an extensive line-up of achievements, Pauline is a very worth recipient of this great honour.

On October 27th SA Golf held their annual awards evening. The evening was hosted by Wayne Philips.

Jan Sutherland (CEO of Sport SA and past Chair of the interim Board of Golf SA) was called upon to induct their first member into the South Australian Golf Industry Hall of Fame - Pauline Sanderson for her outstanding contribution to golf.

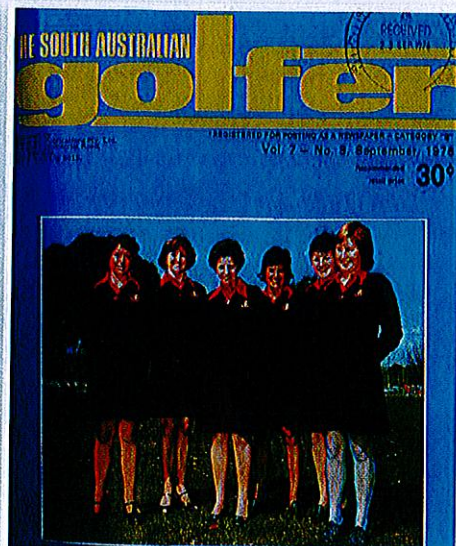

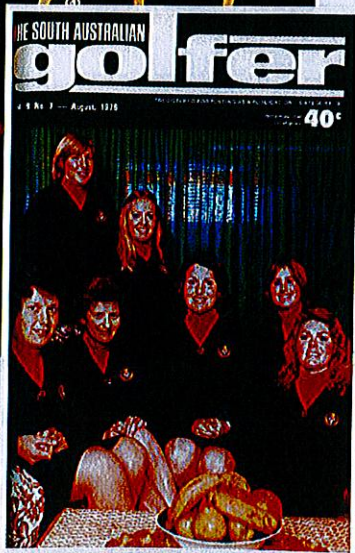

AULINE SANDERSON

Pauline started playing golf as a 19 year old, joining the Glenelg Golf Club where her brother was a member. Although always retaining her

DAVID COURTNEY

DAVID COURTNEY understands the importance of vision and delivering a great customer experience.

He successfully delivered significant growth during his time as CEO at Perth's Burswood Casino and more recently at Crown Casino in Melbourne.

While maintaining great customer service and building an increasingly successful business, David led Crown when it was recognised as Australian Employer of the Year in 2010.

He graduated from Melbourne's RMIT University in 1984, gained his MBA from Monash ten years later and became a partner in corporate finance at Ernst & Young during his 13 years with the consultancy from 1984 to 1997.

In 1997 David joined Crown Melbourne Ltd as Chief Financial Officer where he was responsible for strategy and finance, IT, legal, taxation, human resources and food & beverage.

Within the group he accepted the position of Chief Executive Officer with Burswood Ltd in 2004, before returning as CEO of Crown Melbourne Ltd in 2007. Crown then employed 6,000 staff and had an annual turnover of $1.5 billion.

Mr Courtney left Crown in October 2010 following a restructure. He has been pursuing private business interests for the past two years. He lives in Melbourne with his wife and two children.
