

HISTORY AND HONOUR ROLL – Australian Boys' Interstate Teams Matches

History

The first Australian Boys' Interstate Teams Matches was played in 1958.

The Australian Capital Territory and the Northern Territory joined the competition in 2000, while New Zealand last competed in the event in 1997.

Each team contests singles match play in a round robin format, with each team comprising six (6) team members (one team member is rested in each contest).
