NOTE:

The duration of the Community Coaching Course is dependent on the number of participants attending the program. Times may therefore vary according to these numbers as a result of the required time needed to undertake practical assessments.

A minimum number of six participants are required for a Community Coaching Course to be delivered on an allocated day. Golf Queensland will inform registered participants if there is a need to postpone a course and arrange for an alternative date.

FURTHER INFORMATION

PRE-REQUISITES:

To attain full accreditation participants need to be or have one of the following:

- Be a registered teacher
- Be a current Level 1, 2, or 3 Coach in any Sport
- Have completed the Online Beginning Coaching General Principles Course.

Information in gaining the Beginning Coaching General Principles certificate can be found on the following link: <http://www.ausport.gov.au/participating/coaches/education/onlinecoach>

NOTE:

If you are not a registered teacher or current Level 1, 2, or 3 Coach in another Sport, you will need to provide a copy of this certificate when signing up to do the Community Golf Coaching 1 Accreditation.

ACCREDITATION:

Successful participants completing the course will be accredited with the Community Golf Coach 1 Certificate. This accreditation runs for a period of 4 years from the day participants complete their course and includes cover for personal liability and professional indemnity through Golf Australia's insurer Sportscover.

Golf Queensland will process the accreditations under the Australian Sports Commission's National Accreditation Coaching Scheme (NCAS) and distribute Community Golf Coaching 1 certificates to successful participant's within a period of 2 weeks of completing the course.

NOTE:

During the next 4 years (prior to the date on the Certificate) participants are required to undertake 24 hours of updating, with a minimum of 6 hours per annum to maintain accreditation. Refer to the details provided in the Course materials.

POST COURSE WORK:

No post course is required to get the accreditation. However, in order to retain your accreditation for the 4 years, participants will need to undertake a minimum of 6 hours per annum of updating. Please see the updating sheet for further information.

For further information on this accreditation please contact Golf Queensland on (07) 3252 8155 or via email on info@golfqueensland.org.au
