From coastal links with great sea views to courses surrounding country towns, Yorke Peninsula's golf clubs are highly welcoming to visitors.

Bring your clubs with you and take the time to play a round of golf on one of Yorke Peninsula's many courses – there's something to suit everyone.

Ardrossan Golf Club

An 18 hole course with par 69 and greened fairways, the Ardrossan course is 4925 metres in length and has an Australian Course Rating of 64. Environmentally conscious, the course is watered with recycled town water (which has been treated), ensuring the fairways remain green year-round.

Balaklava Golf Club

Balaklava's 18 hole course is 5987 metres in length, par 72, and has stunning fairways, practice greens, nets and manicured greens situated amongst sand hills.

Edithburgh Golf Club

A par 77 and a nine-hole 5598 metre course, the Edithburgh course has an Australian Course Rating of 67. Featuring sand greens and open from sunrise to sunset, the Edithburgh Golf Club welcomes visitors to the course and club hire is available.

Kadina Golf Club

Opened in 1904, the Kadina Golf Club has a par 72 course, which is 5851 metres in length and has an Australian Course Rating of 68. Each Tuesday it's Ladies' Golf Day, while the men have Men's Golf Day on Wednesday and Saturday.

Maitland Golf Club

Located within the Maitland parklands, the golf course surrounds the township and the club house, overlooking the beautiful Yorke Valley. The Maitland Golf Club has an 18 hole course with a par 69 mens, par 72 ladies and Australian Course Rating of 65. The course is 5188 metres in length with watered fairways for year-round playing.

Minlaton Golf Club

A challenging 18 hole golf course, par 72, amid native vegetation with sand greens. The modern clubhouse has a bar and can cater for barbecues and functions of up to 120 guests.

Moonta Golf Club

Moonta has an 18 hole, par 70 course, with a total length of 5401 metres and Australian Course Rating of 67.

Port Broughton Golf Club

An 18 hole course, with the first nine holes irrigated and playable all year-round, and the second nine holes covered with winter grasses and open April to October. This 5078 metre course is rated a men's par 70 and women's par 72.

The Dunes Port Hughes Golf Club

The first nine holes of this par 72 course, designed by Australian golf legend Greg Norman, is now open. Designed for golfers of all levels, the PGA-standard course has been based on traditional Scottish links layouts, with Norman and his team of designers incorporating extensive sand dunes and native vegetation throughout, while also capitalising on Port Hughes' spectacular coastal setting.

Wallaroo Golf Club

The Wallaroo Golf Club has been running for over 100 years and continues to provide excellent facilities. The 18 hole course has greened and watered fairways and prides itself on being 'a jewel in the crown' for Yorke Peninsula.

Wool Bay Golf Club

Located on the eastern coast of Yorke Peninsula, between Stansbury and Coobowie, the Wool Bay Golf Club is a non-irrigated nine-hole course with scrapes. At a length of 5635 metres, the Wool Bay course is a par 70 and has an Australian Course Rating of 66.

Visitors are invited to play a round at Yorke Peninsula's other golf courses, including nine-hole courses at Bute, Curramulka, Port Vincent, Stansbury and Yorketown; and 18 hole courses at Port Victoria, Port Wakefield and Warooka.
