Q.1) If a ball lands on a practice putting green, relief is not available under Rule 25-3 Wrong Putting Green?

- A.  True
- B.  False

Q.2) In a match a player forgets to mark his ball before lifting it on a putting green. What penalty does he incur?

- A.  Loss of hole
- B.  One Stroke
- C.  Two Strokes

Q.3) Bill is playing in a match against Joe who has two putts to win the hole. Joe putts and Bill, on seeing Joe's ball slow as it nears the hole, says "That's good, you win the hole." However, Joe's ball continues to roll slowly past the hole and down a slope and does not stop until it is over two metres from the hole. Seeing this Bill says to Joe "I didn't think it would roll so far past the hole, I now want you to putt it." What happens next?

- A.  Bill's concession stands as you cannot withdraw a concession. Joe has won the hole.
- B.  It was not a valid concession as the ball was still moving. Joe now has one putt from where his ball came to rest to win the hole.
- C.  The matter must be referred to the Committee to determine.

Q.4) The Committee has established a dropping zone. During a stroke round a player when using the dropping zone, stands outside the marked area, drops the ball within the marked area but it rolls outside the marked area and approximately 30 centimetres nearer the hole. What are the consequences?

- A.  The ball should be re-dropped.
- B.  The player incurs a two stroke penalty.
- C.  The ball should be played as it lies, without penalty.

Q.5) A singles knockout match has to be completed by a certain date. The conditions of play do not state that the competition is over 18 holes. Elsie and Moira are having difficulty fitting their match in before the deadline and can only manage a late afternoon start on the last day. Aware that they will run out of daylight hours and rather than forfeit they agree to play 9 holes and if all square after that they will play on until one of them is ahead. After 9 holes Elsie is one up and they both agree that she is the winner.

- A.  Moira has effectively conceded to Elsie and so wins the match
- B.  Elsie and Moira must replay the match over 18 holes.
- C.  Both Elsie and Moira are disqualified for agreeing to play a nine-hole Match.

Q.6) In a match, Jim leaves his clubs directly opposite a green from where Bob's ball lays. Bob mishits his chip shot and his ball firstly hits Jim; then to make matter worse, strikes Jim's equipment. Does either player incur a penalty?
