

Golf Operations Assistant / Teaching Professional

Located on the Adelaide sand belt and established in 1923, the Kooyonga Golf Club is recognised internationally as one of Australia's leading championship courses and private golf clubs having hosted five Australian Opens, nine South Australian Opens and many other State and National golf events.

With a healthy level of membership, redeveloped clubhouse, first class dining and function facilities, upgrade to its golfing facilities and enviable reciprocal arrangements, the Club has maintained its proud tradition and heritage whilst responding to the changing needs of its members.

Following an extensive review of the current structure, the Committee has recently announced its decision to resume control and management of the Golf Shop operations from 1 August 2015.

The Club has appointed a Golf Operations Manager to oversee the management of the Golf Shop and golf services and now seeks to engage a suitably qualified Golf Operations Assistant / Teaching Professional to assist with the golf operations and retail services at the Club.

Reporting directly to the Golf Operations Manager, key responsibilities of this important role include:-

- Assist with the day to day management of the golf shop and club storage facilities
- Assist with the day to day management of the practice facilities
- Assist with the management of all member golf events and competitions
- Provision of specialist golf coaching services
- Provision of custom club fitting and repair services
- Provision of outstanding services to members, guests and visitors
- Assist in the supervision and training of golf shop staff

Applications are encouraged from certified members of the PGA of Australia with experience teaching in a similar golfing establishment and ideally advanced status in the coaching or game development streams. Excellent communication skills complemented with strong attention to detail and experience using golf technology are essential qualities sought, as is the ability to deliver outstanding customer service.

An attractive salary package will be negotiated with the successful candidate.
