

JUNIOR TASMAN CUP

AUSTRALIAN REPRESENTATIVES AND RECORDS

The Junior Tasman Cup between Australia and New Zealand is played in conjunction with the first two rounds of either the Australian Girls' Amateur or the New Zealand Girls' Amateur (alternated each year). Teams comprise of four players with the best three scores from each day counting towards the team total.

Up until 2016, the Junior Tasman Cup formed part of the Trans Tasman Cup between Australia and New Zealand and consisted of Foursomes and Singles match play.

The first Junior Tasman Trophy was held in 1983 at Russley Golf Club in New Zealand to provide further experience for Australian and New Zealand junior female golfers. It was originally open to players under 12 years of age and was then changed to under 18 years of age. From 2009 onwards players may be under 19.
