I would now like to invite Award Sponsor Heath Sampson (Coca-Cola Amatil) to come forward to present:

SA PGA CLUB PROFESSIONAL OF THE YEAR AWARD

Kim Felton

The PGA Club Professional of the Year Award is designed to recognize the effort, dedication and contribution of PGA Club Professionals to promoting the game of golf. It also recognizes the development of programs and events for professional and amateur golfers alike.

Criteria for the award include:

- Service and benefits to the game of golf including retail, lessons and clinics
- Initiatives in running events, Holden Scrambles, pro-am's etc
- Business initiatives in promoting the business, PR and sourcing new members.

Our 2016 Recipient has been actively engaged with the industry and taking a leading role at his club, consistently ensuring successful programs are delivered to benefit men, women and juniors. His passion for the club shines through each and every day and is always seeking to make the experience for members and visitors as enjoyable as possible. Our winner also is heavily engaged with the PGA and aims to enhance the learning and development of the PGA trainees and also full members around South Australia.

The PGA is proud to announce the 2016 award winner is:

Ian Pritchard from Mt Osmond Golf Club
