Meet the chefs!

Scott Pickett

From humble beginnings, Scott Pickett's career has gone from strength to strength and he is now Executive Chef/Owner at Melbourne dining gems: the two hatted degustation style Estelle by Scott Pickett and the more casual Estelle Bistro. Scott's most significant kitchen experiences were with Philippe Mouchel at Paul Bocuse, and Langton's, three-hatted restaurant Ondine, working under Donovan Cooke and Junior Sous Chef to Philip Howard at London's two Michelin Star restaurant, The Square. Growing up on a farm in Kangarilla, South Australia influenced Scott's passion for good produce and his years working in top restaurants around the world honed his skills to become the chef and restaurateur he is today.

Todd Moses

Melbourne based young chef Todd Moses has cooked in some of Melbourne's finest and reputable kitchens. His resume boasts stints at Fenix, in its hay day, under command of Raymond Capaldi, two hatted, Circa The Prince, and previously time spent within the Andrew McConnell empire. Todd's now found his home at the recently opened French Saloon. Working alongside owner and Melbourne's favourite brit-pack chef, Ian Curley (the European, Kirk's Wine Bar), they make a dynamic team producing some of Melbourne's finest bistro fare. Recently awarded 1 chef's hat in this year's AGFG, Todd's approach is relaxed yet confident with a gunning emphasis on the finest product available.

plus Premium Spirit Ambassador

Brendon Rogers

Brendon Rogers is a world-renowned spirit ambassador with over a dozen years experience in the industry. Brendon has worked as a bartender and sommelier in a number of iconic European venues and currently travels Australia running leading training sessions and demonstrations with premium spirits.

and Special Guest

Jarrood Lyle

After several years on the PGA TOUR, Challenge ambassador Jarrood Lyle has returned home and continues to put his best foot forward on and off the golf course. With two major professional wins on the Nationwide Tour and countless strong performances on the global stage, we are thrilled to have Jarrood teeing it up this week in the 2017 Oates Vic Open in his home state.
