Adam Scott Trophy

North Adelaide
Golf Week

2017 NAGC Par 3 Tournaments

Australia's great golf hero, Adam Scott, was raised here in Adelaide until the age of nine when he and his family moved to Queensland. Adam, under the tutorship of his father, Phil, played his first ever round of golf on the par 3 course at North Adelaide Golf Club (NAGC). To celebrate this fact, NAGC are organising golf tournaments on the same par 3 course. The Scott family have kindly given their permission for the naming rights of the tournaments. The Phil and Adam Scott Trophy is an adult/junior two-ball Ambrose tournament and the Adam Scott Trophy is a two-ball Ambrose tournament with no age restrictions.

The tournaments are to be held concurrently, with qualifying on Thursday, Friday or Saturday April 20-22 and the finals on Sunday, April 23. For the Phil and Adam Scott Trophy, the top six teams from each relationship and age category will qualify for the final. The Adam Scott Trophy, the top 12 teams will qualify for the final.

The entry cost for the tournaments is $36 per team.

For application form and full conditions of play details, see reverse.
