

2017 South Australian Golf Industry Awards Night

Saturday 21 October 2017

South Australian Ladbrokes PGA Pro-Am of the Year

Darren Baynes (Ian Pritchard - SA PGA Chairman to present award)

The Ladbrokes PGA Pro-Am of the Year award is awarded to the tournament which stands out for its professionalism and commitment to promoting the game to local golfers and visiting professionals alike. The PGA Pro-Am award recognizes the host venue and individuals who make the event work on many levels for the PGA professionals who are competing.

Voted on by participating PGA professionals, key criteria include:

- Course condition and presentation of facilities
- Prize money levels and corresponding affordability for players
- Organization and professionalism
- Media and exposure

This year's winner delivered a fantastic event which was well supported by local business and council and delivered a wonderful tournament feel. The presentation of the course was exceptional and the manner in which staff and volunteers were able to work with PGA staff during the week enabled the event to run as smooth as possible. The event was delivered primarily by a PGA member and highlighted the organizational skills of our quality PGA members.

The PGA is proud to announce the winner of the Ladbrokes SA PGA Pro-Am of the year is
