A macabre murder during the Women's Australian Open Golf tournament at one of Australia's most prestigious golf courses sees food and wine journalist and amateur golfer Rebecca Keith on the murder trail once more. Fortunately, Rebecca's sleuthing takes her on a journey of eating and drinking through many of Adelaide's bars and restaurants. Little does Rebecca know that her visits to nearby Barossa Valley and Kangaroo Island will reveal clues that will become crucial in the hunt for a killer.

A Royal Murder, a light-hearted thriller full of intrigue and betrayal, features a full cast of eccentric characters set against the rich backdrop of South Australia and its lush food and wine culture.

Pick up the first Rebecca Keith mystery, The Popeye Murder (RRP $29.95), which is being re-released in conjunction with the launch.

If you cannot attend the launch of A Royal Murder (RRP $29.95) but would like to order the book, please visit www.wakefieldpress.com.au or call us on (08) 8352 4455
