This year's proceeds are going to Autocopy Printing

Autocopy Printing in Gisborne started its life as a not-for-profit business after the disability support provider, Windarring, closed its doors last December. It will continue to provide jobs for people who are unable to work in mainstream employment. It is now being run by Andrea Collins & her 21-year old son, Matthew. Ms Collins daughter, Jess, has worked at the centre for the past 7 years. A crowd-funding campaign has also been set up and hopes to raise $20,000.

Entries close Friday 13 April or when field is full
