

The golf industry is a place that feels like home to many, thanks to the on-going efforts of volunteers, employees, organisations and players.

On Friday 18 August, Huntingdale Golf Club played host to the 2017 Victorian Golf Industry Awards night - an annual celebration of those who have made significant achievements and contributions to the sport throughout the year.

We wish to congratulate the nominees and winners of the 2017 awards, listed below.

2017 Victorian Regional Volunteer of the Year

Dorothy Mortlock – President Golf Peninsula Vic

2017 Golf Club of the Year

Bairnsdale Golf Club

2016 Amateur Players of the Year

Female – Alizza Hetherington

Male – Brett Coletta

2017 Club Employee Award

Clayton Howell – The Eastern Golf Club

2017 GMV Excellence in Management

Barbara Kelly – Chirnside Park Country Club

2017 Apprentice of the Year

Joel Manson - Anglesea Golf Club

2017 Superintendent Recognition Award

Michael Freeman – Huntingdale Golf Club

2016 Victorian PGA Legends Pro Am of the Year Winner
Shepparton BMW Victorian Senior Open played at the Yarrowonga Mulwala Golf Club Resort and the Black Bull Golf Club

2016 Victorian Metropolitan Pro-Am of the Year
Eynesbury Masters

2016 Victorian Regional Pro-Am of the Year
Barwon Cleaning Supplies Portarlinton Pro Am

2016/17 Victorian PGA Club Professional of the Year
Travis Harrison – Brighton Public Golf Course

2016/17 Victorian PGA Teaching Professional of the Year
Christian Hamilton – Golf Australia National Inclusion Manager

2016/17 Victorian PGA Coach of the Year
Denis McDade – Bann Lynch McDade Golf, Yarra Bend Golf Complex

2016/17 Victorian PGA Manager of the Year
Jeff Graham – Goonawarra Golf Club

2016 Victorian Pro-Am Order of Merit Winner
Andrew Martin

