PLAYER INFORMATION

History of the Victorian Boys & Girls Championships

The Victorian Boys and Girls Championships are Australian, and World ranked events. In 2018 the Championships shift from Yarra Yarra to Moonah Links (Open Course). Originally the tournament was played over 36-holes qualifying, followed by elimination match play until 2012. However, the Championships are now contested as pinnacle 72-hole junior stroke events without a 'cut'. The event has fast become one of the most coveted titles in the country. Year after year it attracts a huge field with some of the best junior golfers from Australia and overseas assembling in chase of the titles. The final round is streamed live via Facebook LIVE and the Golf Victoria website.
