I would now like to invite Nick Bouzalas (Coca-Cola Amatil) to come forward to present:

SA PGA CLUB PROFESSIONAL OF THE YEAR AWARD

The PGA Club Professional of the Year Award is designed to recognise the effort, dedication and contribution of PGA Club Professionals to promoting the game of golf. It also recognises the development of programs and events for professional and amateur golfers alike.

Criteria for the award includes:

- Service and benefits to the game of golf including retail, lessons and clinics
- Initiatives in running events, Holden Scrambles, pro-am's
- Business initiatives in promoting the business, PR and sourcing new members.

This years winner has shown incredible leadership at his club and with over 15 years experience, has demonstrated what it takes to be a leader and visionary among his peers within the PGA, frequently providing support and advice for his staff and also fellow PGA members around the country.

The PGA is proud to announce the 2018 award winner is:

Craig Davis from The Mount Gambier Golf Club
