I would now like to invite Nick Dasty (PGA) to come forward to present:

SA PGA COACH OF THE YEAR AWARD

Ben Hook (MC)

The South Australian PGA Coach of the Year is awarded to the PGA member who has demonstrated exceptional results in coaching professionals or elite amateurs and have built a profile within the industry through high performance coaching.

Criteria include;

- Results of clients and students in tournaments
- Promotion of golf
- Published content and personal development & continuing education

The coach of the year in 2018 has set himself above the rest with his extensive work schedule which sees him lead state, national and international teams and players all whilst continuing to learn and improve himself and his approach to being a professional. Our winner has continued to lead some of Japan's best male & female golfers take on the world in both amateur and professional ranks and has been a major component of Golf Australia's national coaching platform for many years and has assisted Golf SA with its approach to elite player development. One of the most knowledgeable PGA professionals anywhere in the world.

The PGA is proud to announce the 2018 PGA Coach of the Year is...
