It's Turner and Winslow at Blackwood   18.02.2019

Monday 18/2/2019, Blackwood Golf Course in the Adelaide hills, 84 players, good course condition; excellent greens and a mild summer's day for the second round of the SA Senior Order of Merit.

The Blackwood event is always an important event on the SA Calendar with a strong local contingent, excellent organisation and extensive prizes plus a lot of us had just attended the Australian Women's Open at Grange West so were suitably inspired by the highquality play we'd seen!

Nigel Turner, now with Links Lady Bay as his home course but still with Blackwood connections, shot 76 to win the Senior section by 2 strokes from Trevor Smith (Naracoorte) and Bruce Lindner (Kooyonga).
Chris Everett took up the challenge for Tea Tree Gully and the leaders from the previous round, Ken Parker and Steve Ross were again featured.

In Super Seniors, Bill Winslow (The Grange), Wayne Humphries (Glenelg), Chris Claxton (Blackwood) and George Cleland (The Vines of Reynella) all turned in 79's with Bill winning on a count back.

Seniors Gross was a bit of a sweep for Blackwood with Senior Pennant representative Brad Carman getting home by 1 stroke with a 70 Nett. Malcolm Sangster (West Lakes) with an excellent 66 was a clear winner of the Super Seniors Nett.
