

STILL PLAYING AT 90!

On Monday, July 8th, the Forster Tuncurry Golf Club hosted a lunch for nine members over 90 years of age or turning 90 years of age in 2019, who are still playing competition golf!

Over the last year, there were six players over 90 years of age who played a total of 347 games - an average of 58 games per player.

The oldest female player Hazel Donaldson (97) played 47 games and the oldest male, Les Thomas (96) played 77 games.

Members honoured at the lunch were Tom Champion, John Frost, William Waldock, Ken Flynn, Olga Gerathy, Douglas Dowling, Leslie Thomas and Hazel Donaldson. George Hallett was unable to attend.

Here's a great photo of Les Thomas in action – who still walks the Tuncurry course twice weekly!

Hazel (pictured below) is the club's oldest competitor at 97 years of age – just inspirational. Golf truly is a game for life.
