

GOLF NSW HITS THE ROAD

This year's Road Show tour took the Golf NSW team from Ballina to Bathurst, Bonville to Narooma, Gunnedah to Rich River, and many other locations in between.

More than 520 Club Managers, Captains, Presidents, Board Members, Committee Members and Club Professionals from nearly 200 Clubs and Districts attended the presentations, which covered a diverse range of important topics including:

- Strategic and current issues in the golfing landscape
- Accessing government and other grants
- Governance updates
- Amalgamation guidelines
- Club Support resources available from Golf NSW
- Marketing ideas and initiatives
- Participation programs
- Vision 2025 – a strategy to address the gender imbalance in the game and draw more women and girls to golf
- Rules updates
- Golf event news

OVER 70 INDIVIDUALS FROM THE REGION ATTENDED THE HUNTER VALLEY PRESENTATION

CHYLOE KURDAS – FEMALE ENGAGEMENT SENIOR MANAGER FROM GOLF AUSTRALIA JOINED THE GOLF NSW TEAM TO PRESENT VISION 2025

As well as being a source of vital information and resources, the meetings are a wonderful opportunity to meet and share ideas with colleagues from the region.

MANY PRODUCTIVE DISCUSSIONS AND NEW RELATIONSHIPS FORMED

The Road Show series is conducted annually, and the leadership teams from all Clubs are encouraged to attend, whether they be public or private, small or large, with membership growth or decline. There is important information shared that is relevant to every club, to ensure a healthy and strong future for the game and the industry.

Did your Club Board and Management team attend?